

45mm/1.77" top margin

(This space shall be reserved for putting the author's name and affiliation when we compile book of abstracts for the conference later.)

Abstract title (The text should in Times/Times New Roman, 12 point)

30mm/1.18"
left mar.

Here starts the main body of the text, approximately 500 words. Figures and tables must be put at the end of the abstract, with appropriate number referencing in the main text.

30mm/1.18"
right mar.

The text should be single-spaced. Please make your abstract as clear and specific as possible, giving examples whenever necessary in the text. As you know, many linguists love interesting examples.

(the text)

The text may continue to the second page, if the 500-word limit is observed. The total length of the abstract, however, must be limited to two pages, including references, figures, tables, graphs, and other non-text materials.

References

Doe, J. 2005. Explorations in grammatical constructions: how we survived the ice age of grammatical theory. Nanja: Monja University Press. (N.B. We do not require you to adhere to any particular style prescriptions for bibliographical references.)

(figures, tables, or graphs, if any, on the following page)

30mm/1.18" bottom margin